

Purchasing guidelines

In support of our purchasing objectives, Titan Logix Corp.'s employees will:

- Comply in all respects to applicable laws, rules and regulations where we operate.
- Carry out the policies of the company so that the best interests of the company are served.
- Not allow their personal bias to influence the selection or rejection of a particular supplier, product or service.
- Seek to maintain and further long term and mutually beneficial, ethical supplier relationships.
- Not accept gratuities, from suppliers or potential suppliers except promotional items of nominal value. Employees will give or accept gifts and entertainment that are for business purposes and not material or frequent.
- Refrain from any act that would result in a conflict of interest or the appearance or potential for a conflict of interest.
- Not reveal confidential company information without proper authority.
- Strive to meet high standards of professional conduct.
- Not employ agents to carry out actions that conflict with these guidelines.
- Not choose business partners that contravene Titan's policies and guidelines.
